

Australia

Financial Counsellor KANGAROO ISLAND

Financial Counsellor Kangaroo Island is currently available till 30th June 2020 (likely to be extended), remunerated at level 5 of the award.

In response to the bushfires The Salvation Army has extended its serves to support those affected within the community in many ways including financial counselling. The Salvation Army's Moneycare team is seeking expressions of interest from suitably qualified staff to work on Kangaroo Island.

The initial fixed term contract for this position will be until 30th June 2020 (full time)

The successful applicant will:

- Hold a relevant diploma in Community Service (Financial Counselling);
- Able to work with limited supervision
- Be a member of the South Australian Financial Counselling Association/ or willing to work towards and maintain; &
- Share our passion for the mission and values of The Salvation Army
- Have excellent written and oral communication skills;
- Be client focused;
- Have a collaborative approach to their interaction with team members, whilst making sure established guidelines are followed;

If you are interested in any of these positions please attach a copy of your resume (including 3 referees) and a cover letter detailing your suitability for the role to sharon.maslen@salvationarmy.org.au

For any questions about this role, please contact Sharon Maslen on 0429 051 323.

Applicants must be willing to work within the vision and mission values of The Salvation Army and be able to provide a police clearance.

The Salvation Army Australia is an Equal Opportunity Employer who provides an inclusive work environment and embraces the diverse talent of its people.

We value Integrity, Compassion, Respect, Diversity, and Collaboration.